MAYOR SMITH INTERVIEWED.

Talks Interestingly on the Needs of Daytona.—Wants to Turn Fire Apparatus Over to Company K.

Mayor Smith, who is ever on the alert to the best interests of the city, and whose official capacity has made several valuable suggestions to the city council, in regard to the betterment of conditions here generally was yesterday interviewed by a News representative.

Mr. Smith said if the matter of bonding the city for improvements was put before the public at a meeting in the future, which the council proposes to do, he is of the opinion that every one would be satisfied with its workings. The mayor said the city should by all means have the waterworks and sewerage system, because it meant the health and betterment of this community. He said that the town was backward in this respect, and something should be done before an epidemic broke out here.

The matter of building sidewalks was also discussed, and the city's chief executive was of the opinion that the council was biting off more than they could chew right at this time of the year. He said that if the sidewalks were torn up, there would be no room for pedestrians, and with the speeding of automobiles, it would make the scene altogether too dangerous, and that he intended to object to such a movement from the start.

The subject of road building and the improving of thoroughfares in this city was spoken of. Mayor Smith thinks there should be something done towards the betterment of the streets and as the city has a rock crusher and several rollers, he sees no good reason why a start towards improving the roads could not be made.

The matter of fire protection, Mayor Smith thinks is totally inadequate to cope with the situation. This, he says, is due to a poor water supply and the kind of apparatus the town has. He thinks if the local Military Company was given the power to use the apparatus, and when efficient service was done, $50 as a fee should be given them from the city.

At last night's meeting of the County Commissioners held at DeLand, Lieut. Col. Bingham, Major John B. Parkinson and T. E. Fitzgerald appeared before that body and an adjustment was made between the County Commissioners and the State Military authorities for the use of the Armory by the local militia. A lease was drawn up and signed this morning, giving the State exclusive use of the building at a monthly rental of $20.

Sanitary Conditions of Midway.
Sanitary officer Roberts reports the city in fairly good condition, existing under the present circumstances. Mr. Roberts says, that in Midway there is a big improvement while Mayor Smith said that he recently made a personal inspection of that thriving suburb, and he was surprised at the good improvement.

The City's New Books.
The new set of books for the municipality of Daytona is now in the hands of the makers, and it is expected that they will be delivered by January 1st. The books will cost upwards of $400. Under the system any person can go to the City Hall after the second of each month and tell the exact condition of any of the city's funds. The new books will be a great improvement over the old ones, and will be welcomed by every one who has dealings with the city.

ARMORY WILL NOT BE SOLD.

A Contract Was Closed Last Night Between County Commissioners and the State of Florida.

At last night's meeting of the County Commissioners held at DeLand, Lieut. Col. Bingham, Major John B. Parkinson and T. E. Fitzgerald appeared before that body and an adjustment was made between the County Commissioners and the State Military authorities for the use of the Armory by the local militia. Assessed Valuation of Volusia Property

The valuation of Volusia county property increased this year $573,200.6 over that of last year. The total assessed valuation of the county for 1904 was $3,822,636; this year it is $4,395,837. This valuation exceeds any before the freezes. Property in Florida for taxation is assessed at about one-third its value. The real value of the property of the county, therefore, is over $13,000,000.

A new bulletin board has been erected at the station, thereby giving more room for the time and information of trains.

It is announced that Mrs. Helen Wilman Post will leave shortly for Los Angeles, Calif. where she expects to locate.

The work of ballasting the Florida East Coast Railway with rock, between Jacksonville and St. Augustine, is underway and before the winter schedule is put on they expect to have the thirty-seven miles complete. A faster schedule will be maintained between Jacksonville and St. Augustine.

ACTIVE SCENE AT MIAMI.

Fleet of Barges and Steamboats Will Arrive This Week From Mobile For Extension Work.

All eyes of the state for the present and for some time to come will be directed on Miami and the work of constructing the great extension of the Florida East Coast Railway. That city and its vicinity present a busy appearance, and the indications are that it will continue.

The Miami Metropolis in speaking of the fleet of crafts that will arrive there this week has the following:

"Capt. Steve Bravo, of the steamer Biscayne, who went to Mobile several days ago to bring here a steamer purchased by the F. E. C. Railway for use in the extension operations, is expected to arrive in port during the present week with the steamer St. Lucie.

The St. Lucie was previously owned in Florida and was operated on the Indian River between Titusville and Jupiter, the southern terminus of the run. She is on the order of the Biscayne, though considerably larger.

The present week, or next ten days, the weather permitting, a number of steamers, tugs and barges recently purchased by the F. E. C. Railway from points on the west coast, mainly Mobile and on the Mississippi river, will have arrived in port and increased its already lively appearance.

There are said to be a large number of these vessels—five or six large stern wheeled steamers, three or four tugs, a dozen or more barges and several dredges, all of which are for use in the building of the unique railroad "across the sea." The steamers are intended to carry material south for the construction of the road bed and bridges, the first consignments of which are now arriving; the tugs are to tow the barges loaded with water and material, while the dredges are to assist in preparing the channels and improving the waterway expenses over which the trestles will cross.

When this immense fleet arrives, adding to that already in use, the accommodations at the terminal dock will be insufficient for them and the vessels of the P. & O. steamers, which must necessarily use it, and in consequence the river dock of the railroad company will come into use, but even that will be crowded.

The work of building the extension is just now getting under good headway and the next few weeks, or months at the outside, will see operations materially advanced and the actual building of the trestles under way.

Work has begun on the third story of the new Hendricks Block. It was the original intention of the owner to only erect a two story building, but he finds that he can get tenants for the other floor, and hence the change in his plans.

AUTO CLUB HOLDS MEETING.

Encouraging Reports Received from W. J. Morgan, President Asa Paine in Attendance.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Club, held an interesting meeting last evening, at the club headquarters at the beach. The attendance was fair considering the inclement weather.

Mr. Asa Paine of Minneapolis Minn., the new president was present, and he was warmly welcomed by every member there.

Reports received from Senator W. J. Morgan, the promoter, were to the effect that great interest was being manifested in the East and the list of entries will be the largest ever known.

The organization has 141 members and the next regular meeting will be held the first Monday in January.

Reclaiming the Everglades.
The Times-Union in speaking of the new dredges to be used in the work of reclaiming the Everglades, among other things says:

"All of the machinery for these two dredges was purchased by Governor Broward last summer, while he was in Chicago, and has been shipped down the east coast, where the hulls are to be built, to the west of the bridge of the F. E. C. Railway, where the road crosses New River. The dredge will work up New River, through the Everglades, toward Lake Okechobee.

"The lumber for constructing the hulls of the dredges has been shipped down the east coast and the work of putting the hulls together and setting the machinery in place will be done by the Merrill-Stevens Engineering Company of this city.

"Each of the dredges will be equipped with dipper buckets, having a capacity of 4 cubic yards, and the machinery will be capable of operating these dippers so as to make a dip every forty-five seconds.

"On account of the dredges being of greater width than the opening in the drawbridges over the New River and the St. Lucie River, it has been found necessary to build the hulls and erect the machinery for the dredges to the west of the draw bridges. One of the dredges will be named the Okechobee, and the other will be named the Everglades. Other dredges of the same general style will be built for the great drainage work at an early date.

"The work is to be done under the general supervision of the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund of Florida."

Pipe has been laid on Myrtle street for the drainage of that thoroughfare.

D. Monks the curio man is engaged in painting the exterior of his store on Beach street, and he expects to open up for business on Thursday.

GETTING READY FOR THE CROWDS.

Hotels Beginning to Open and a Scene of General Activity.—F. E. C. Ry.
Makes Improvements.

That Daytona will experience a large tourist season, or the largest one in the history of this resort town, is a foregone conclusion.

For some weeks past, there has been a scene of activity in getting ready for our northern friends and as each day passes, one or more hotels are opening in order to accommodate the increasing crowds.

Not only is Daytona making preparations, but Seabreeze, Daytona Beach, Ormond and the resorts down the coast are putting on their winter frills.

Daytona offers many inducements to the tourist public and for this reason our city is among the first of the resort towns to fill.

The Florida East Coast Railway Company has done much to assist the town in bringing the crowds here, by fast trains and convenient schedules and they too are keeping pace with the times.

During the past summer and up to the present time, the locomotives have been dismembered and every piece thoroughly cleaned and tested, receiving repairs where necessary. For several weeks past these engines have been turned out of the shop at the rate of one a week and soon the last of them will be again on the rails and in the pink of condition.

Many of the coaches have been repaired and upholstered. They are in as good condition as new.

In addition to placing the equipment of the road in perfect condition, the road is making large additions to its rolling stock. Three new sleepers have been ordered and are expected to arrive here in the course of a few weeks. Ten new coaches, each seventy feet long have also been ordered, and will also be added to the equipment.

The Florida East Coast Railway has been developing like magic, and it now ranks among the very best in the country. In every department it is up to date, and the road bed is one of the smoothest in the United States. The service is unsurpassed and traveling on this road is robbed of most of the discomfort encountered on many other roads.

Year by year the equipment has been increased, but none too much for the continual increase of business and the coming winter promises to furnish sufficient business for the additional rolling stock.

A Poem for Today

WIND AND SEA
By Bayard Taylor

THE sea is a jovial comrade;
He laughs wherever he goes;
His merriment shines in the dimpling lines
That wrinkle his hale repose;
He lays himself down at the feet of the sun
And shakes all over with glee,
And the broad backed billows fall faint on the shore
In the mirth of the mighty sea.

But the wind is sad and restless
And cursed with an inward pain.
You may bark as you will by valley or hill,
But you hear him still complain.
He wails on the barren mountains
And shrieks on the wintry sea;
He sobs in the cedar and moans in the pine
And shudders all over the aspen tree.

Welcome are both their voices,
And I know not which is best—
The laughter that slips from the ocean's lips
Or the comfortless wind's unrest.
There's a pang in all rejoicing,
A joy in the heart of pain,
And the wind that saddens, the sea that gladdens,
Are slinging the selfsame strain.

A Poem for Today

YOU NEVER CAN TELL
By Ella Wheeler Wilcox

YOU never can tell when you send a word—
Like an arrow shot from a bow
By an archer blind—be it cruel or kind,
Just where it will chance to go.
It may pierce the heart of your dearest friend,
Tipped with its poison or balm;
To a stranger's heart in life's great mart
It may carry its pain or its calm.

You never can tell when you do an act
Just what the result will be,
But with every deed you are sowing a seed,
Though its harvest you may not see.
Each kindly act is an acorn dropped
In God's productive soil;
Though you may not know, yet the tree shall grow
And shelter the brows that toil.

You never can tell what your thoughts will do
In bringing you hate or love,
For thoughts are things, and their airy wings
Are swifter than carrier dove.
They follow the law of the universe—
Each thing must create its kind—
And they speed o'er track to bring you back
Whatever went out from your mind.

Ireland's Sacred Oak.
In years gone by Ireland had a sacred oak dedicated to St. Columban, one of the peculiarities of the tree being that whoever carried a small bit of the wood or bark in his mouth would never meet with a violent death. It being especially efficacious in saving Christian martyrs from the block. It was known throughout the British Isles as the holy oak of Kenuare. After the lapse of many centuries this sacred oak was uprooted by a storm, after which it was said to be guarded by angels to keep heretics from gathering the wood for fuel. At last a wicked totem "harked" one of its largest limbs and caused some leather, which he made into shoes for himself, imagining that such relics would bring him wealth and power. He wore them but once, however, but that one time was enough to make him an incurable leper.

British Museum Home.
The reading room of the British Museum is crowned by a spacious dome, which is about thirty feet wider than that of St. Paul's cathedral. It is 14 feet in diameter and, with its 60,000 superficial feet of glass, springs more than 100 feet in height. Neither St. Peter's at Rome nor Santa Maria at Florence is a match to it. It is larger by forty-five feet than the dome of the capitol at Washington, by thirty-five feet than that of Darmstadt cathedral, by thirty-three feet than that of St. Sophia, Constantinople, and spreads sixteen feet further than the concave roof of the tomb of Mohammed Adil Shah at Bijapur.

The Man Who Is In Earnest.
The vital necessity for the qualities of inspiration, reality and magnetism was brought home to me when I was a schoolboy adding at college functions. I saw speakers who came forward and who well just spoke so many words. Then would come an orator, a man who acted the part, who lived the part, who was the part because he believed it, and so swept the people off their feet. J. P. Sousa in London interview.

One Occupation Less.
A visitor at a small resort on the coast, says the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, asked one of the men whom he saw at the village store what he did all summer.
"Loaf and fish," replied the native.
"What do you do in the winter?" continued the inquiring visitor.
"We don't fish!"

William M. Clark, General Eastern Freight Agent for a number of railroads, left this morning for his headquarters in New York, after spending several days in Daytona and vicinity.

One of the busiest places in Miami is at the terminal wharf, where the Florida East Coast Railway has two hundred or more men employed on the extension work. This is exclusive of the chief engineer's office, where a large number of draughtsmen are employed. At present there are two large dredges under construction, and a large number of engineers are at work making the boxes for the dump cars. Great piles of lumber and other material are being brought in daily, and is being shipped down the line. Among the late arrivals of materials that has recently arrived is a great number of high boxes containing tents.
The supply of tents is kept here and drawn from as necessary. Among the machinery there for the extension work are huge lathes for iron turning, planers and other machinery.

Railroad Painters At Work.
A force of railroad painters arrived here yesterday from the shops at St.
Augustine, and today began the work of brightening the new freight house.
Buildings in the vicinity of the station will soon present a clear appearance.

A Tale of a Tub.
The two pretty American girls ha-net two delightful Englishmen on the way across and had given a cordial invitation, warmly seconded by their mother, to Sir Charles and his friend to visit them at their country home.
One day a message came saying that the two men would arrive that afternoon.
The family was thrown into a fever of excitement, and many plans of entertainment for their guests were suggested and abandoned. It was finally decided that, as Englishmen are no enthusiasts of a "tub" and their guests were coming directly from the train, they should first be invited to take a bath. After that the hostess would rely on the inspiration of the moment.

The young men arrived promptly and after some douring were hurried off to the bathroom. In about an hour they emerged and went immediately to their hostess, saying, "We are sorry to leave so soon, but we only came to make a call, and our train leaves in fifteen minutes."—Lippin-

How to Treat Your Town.
Place it
Improve it
Talk about it
Write about it
Trade with it
Be public spirited
Take a home pride in it
Tell of its business resources
Tell of its natural advantages
Trade and induce others to trade here
When strangers come to town
Don't call your best friends frauds and impostors Suggest the local institutions that benefit your town Look ahead of yourself when all the town is to be considered Don't forget you live off the people here, and you should help others as they help you Don't advertise in the local paper to "help the proprietor," but to help yourself Let's get together and keep things moving, hustling all the time, cheerfully keeping a stiff upper lip, waiting for the good time coming for the old town.
Let's try it. Do it now.—Exchange.

male and female, 18 years of age and over, in Daytona and its environs, to get on the staff of the paper. The Daily News wants every copy of local news that is worth printing to appear in its columns. The best way to get it is to ask the people who know about the news to send it to the paper.

So if you know anything that has happened, or is about to happen, tell the City Editor about it or write to him.

DAYTONA AND ITS ATTRACTIONS.

The Queen City Of Florida.

From the F. E. C. Railway Booklet.

1/2 Miles from Jacksonville. Fare one way.....$3.30 Round trip.....6.00

2 1/2 Miles from St. Augustine. Fare one way.....$2.20 Round trip.....4.40

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its widest expanse and midway between its source at Boley Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 28° 21' and one mile from the Atlantic ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palm trees, glossy leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the amorphoea climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty feet wide, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebbs and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic. A high temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, macled and shell roads and streets, rendering it the Wheelman's Paradise and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long-distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and home illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, City Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the Water Supply which is derived from numerous artesian wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach lies one mile west of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet. The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona Grand Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is broad for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged boats racing with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebb tide, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and also a safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula lying between river and ocean is one half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, a pen house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abode of wealth and culture are multiplying.

Goodall (City Beautiful) and Seabreeze (City Beautiful) are the two settlements on the ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona. At the foot of Ocean Boulevard Seabreeze, a pier reaches out into the surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalla, whiting, drum, sheephead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords much sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon. Individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the river. Trout and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.

J. D. Wolf, of Dupont, was in the city yesterday on business.

T. L. Rodgers left yesterday afternoon for Deland, to attend the Commercial meeting.

J. E. Robinson, of Williston, was among the out of town visitors in Daytona yesterday.

J. G. Jacobs and H. L. Rabidone, of Jacksonville's traveling salesmen, spent yesterday in the city.

Mrs. W. C. Smith has arrived here from Palm Beach to spend the winter. She has assumed the duties of tax clerk at the post office.

Miss May Worley passed through here yesterday afternoon, enroute to her home at Buena Vista, from a visit to her uncle, Dr. S. G. Worley in St. Augustine.

Mrs. B. Z. Snowden, left New York today for Daytona and will spend the winter here with her husband, who is manager of the Daytona Furniture Company.

Through the generosity of H. M. Fletcher, the children of the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind at St. Augustine, were treated to a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner.

The first of the Thomas Hendrickson excursion parties will arrive in Jacksonville on the 15th, from New York, via the Clyde Line. These excursionists will remain in the state for two weeks. Their itinerary includes a trip along the East Coast, with a stop at Daytona.

A Wolf of Atlanta, representing a paper house is in Daytona.

L. B. Alexander of Chicago, representing the Royal Blue Shoe is in the city visiting the trade.

Geo. W. Byrnes of Jacksonville, an attaché of the Florida Hardware Company, is here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Weatherber of Worcester, Mass. announces the engagement of their daughter Helen Leland, to L. Colby Pinkerton of Ormond.

Senator Zim, of St. Augustine, announces that owing to the delay in material, the publication of his new paper, The Meteor, has been postponed for a week.

Dr. Potter and E. D. Langworthy returned yesterday from a hunting trip in the northern end of the county. They brought home two deer as a result of their expert marksmanship.

James W. House, the contractor, returned last night from Jacksonville. He brought with him some trimmings for the Butler residence which he is building. He says the house will cost in the vicinity of $7,000.

M. B. Aultman and Dr. J. H. Pierson, celebrated their 21st (7) birthday last evening at the Cedars. Refreshments and past times were indulged in, and the time was pleasantly spent. There were only a few in attendance.

Antonia M. Lopez, of West Palm Beach, arrived here yesterday from St. Augustine, to accept a position in the Russell Pharmacy. Mr. Lopez has a number of friends in this city, who are glad to have him here.

Wade H. Jones, of Titusville, who will arrive here on the 15th to spend the winter, will open a curio store in the Anthony Block. He will bring along with him a real Seminole Indian, who will manufacture moccasins in the store.

The Simpson Pass.

The Simpson pass always has been the great highway of travel from Switzerland into Italy. It was used by Caesar and his legions as far back as 50 B. C., and, although Napoleon had opened to use the St. Bernard pass, he recognized the superior importance of the Simpson and ordered a military road to be built over it to serve in future campaigns. It was begun in 1800 but before it was completed, in 1801 the fortunes of the battlefield led the emperor elsewhere, so he never saw it. While thus constructed for war, no army ever crossed it. Instead of furnishing a route for cannons, it became a peaceful medium for international commerce. St. Louis Republic.

The Original Lovers' Leap.

Sappho's Leap was the name given to a white cliff or promontory anciently called Leucadia, now Cape Duncanson, at the southern extremity of Santa Maura, one of the Ionian Islands. It was so called because Sappho, the poetess, is reported to have thrown herself from this height into the sea. A criminal, with birds attached to him to break his fall, was thrown from the cliff at the annual festival of Apollo, and if he reached the water unharmed he was picked up by boats placed there for that purpose. This is the rock from which, according to the story, lovers throw themselves in order to be free from the pangs of love.

Three Things Desired.

As a result of observation and reflection during a long life touching public men and measures in wide variety I would desire for my country three things above all others to supplement American civilization: From Great Britain, her administration of criminal justice; from Germany, her theater and from any or every European country save Russia, Spain and Turkey, its government of cities. - Andrew D. White in Century.

The Man and the Place.
